In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 1.

NAME AND INCORPORATION

- C1.01. The name of this congregation shall be Shepherd of the Hills Evangelical Lutheran Church.
- C1.02. For the purpose of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws and resolutions, the congregation of Shepherd of the Hills Evangelical Lutheran Church is hereinafter designated as "this congregation."
- C1.11. This congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Chapter 2.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

- *C2.01. This congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- *C2.02. This congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
 - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- *C2.03. This congregation accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.
- *C2.04. This congregation accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this congregation.
- *C2.05. This congregation accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- *C2.06. This congregation accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.
- *C2.07. This congregation confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scripture and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 3.

NATURE OF THE CHURCH

- *C3.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this congregation are to be carried out under his rule and authority.
 - *C3.02. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

- *C3.03. The name Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA or “this church”) as used herein refers in general references to this whole church, including its three expressions: congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization. The name Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is also the name of the corporation of the churchwide organization to which specific references may be made herein.

Chapter 4.

[Such descriptions shall be contained in continuing resolutions in the section on the Congregation Committees.]

- *C4.05. This congregation shall, from time to time, adopt a mission statement which will provide specific direction for its programs.
- *C4.06. References herein to the nature of the relationship between the three expressions of this church—congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization—as being interdependent or as being in a partnership relationship describe the mutual responsibility of these expressions in God’s mission and the fulfillment of the purposes of this church as described in this chapter, and do not imply or describe the creation of partnerships, co-ventures, agencies, or other legal relationships recognized in civil law.

C13.07.A15 COMMITTEE DESCRIPTIONS

Property Committee: The Property Committee maintains and improves both the exterior and the interior of our buildings (church, storage shed, gazebo and cemeteries) and plans for future needs. The property committee recognizes the ultimate use of our buildings is ministry. The committee will note and assess jobs to improve and maintain church property. Whenever possible, committee members will complete jobs themselves, but when necessary, they will hire for the following: painting, carpentry, plumbing, periodic cleaning, window washing, general repairs, etc. Property ministry has both spring and fall Sunday-after-church workdays. Volunteers are especially needed to supervise projects, contribute their labour where needed, and use their gifts for long-term, short-term, and one-time commitments. One Church Council member will be the Property Committee liaison, who will submit a report to the congregation at the yearly annual meeting. Specific committee responsibilities are listed in a separate flyer, which is part of the Council's notes. The Committee shall consist of one Council member, who shall report to the council, and any others from the council or congregation who feel gifted and called to this committee.

Stewardship Committee: The Stewardship Committee, in consultation with the Pastor and Church Council, shall consist of the chair-person, and members chosen by the chair and council to conduct a stewardship campaign every other year shall which includes time, talents (Spiritual Gifts Inventory) and possessions (pledges). Stewardship is about being grateful, responsible stewards of the gifts we receive from God. The tradition of giving back to God and to the church comes from the Biblical practice of tithing, which means to give back a tenth of our earnings to God (Numbers 18:26). Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church sees stewardship as more than simply contributing money to the church; it's also about contributing time and talents, and volunteering for ministry and mission. It's about reaching out to build relationships from a perspective of abundance instead of scarcity. The Pastor can serve as Council liaison to this committee if a Council member is not available to do so.

Christian Education Committee: The Christian Education Committee shall consist of the Sunday School Superintendent, teachers and helpers, the Pastor and any other members who feel gifted and called to this committee. Christian education exists to afford educational opportunities to people of all ages to nurture their faith, develop their knowledge and experience, and inspire and empower them to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Shepherd of the Hills offers programs for all ages, because in our faith and in life's journey, learning never stops! Christian education, in consultation with the Pastor and Council of Shepherd of the Hills is provided for children from Pre-K to the 8th grade from 9:00 to 9:45 am on Sunday mornings. The curriculum is chosen by the Sunday School Superintendent and the teachers/helpers. Adult education can be provided during the same time on Sunday morning or may be scheduled at alternate times during the week.

Sunday School Teachers: Responsibilities include class preparation, conducting the lesson, ensuring the room is cleaned up, and finding a replacement when necessary. The time commitment is approximately 1 hour of preparation and 1 hour of teaching each Sunday for about 30 lessons. This is a great opportunity for two friends to team teach and support an important Ministry.

The Confirmation Ministry affirms 7th and 8th graders as they continue their faith journey towards adulthood. Learning time, fellowship, and service work prepare the young people for their Affirmation of Baptism. The students meet on Wednesday evenings throughout the school year, and on Sunday morning until lessons covering the Old and New Testament and Luther's Small Catechism (Creed, Lord's Prayer, Ten Commandments, Service) are completed.

Worship and Music: The Worship and Music Committee shall consist of the Pastor, chairperson, choir directors and organists and any other volunteers of the congregation who feel a call to serve on this committee. This committee strives to provide a spiritually meaningful worship experience through a variety of worship formats. Their responsibility is, in consultation with the Pastor, to coordinate, plan and oversee worship services at Shepherd of the Hills, including shared responsibility in choosing hymns and providing special music. The Worship Team also evaluates and makes recommendations about worship resources, worship format (traditional, blended, and contemporary), technology used for worship, and coordination of volunteers to assist with technology use and scheduling throughout the year. Worship includes all weekly Sunday morning services, seasonal worship such as Lenten services and Christmas Eve, and occasional worship opportunities in collaboration with other local churches. The Worship Team meets quarterly or as needed to discuss the upcoming worship needs for Shepherd of the Hills.

Finance/ Budget Committee: The Finance Committee shall consist of the Pastor, the treasurer, the financial secretary, and one church council member. The Finance Committee shall provide financial oversight and management of the congregation's financial resources in consultation with the Church Council. Their task is to track and ensure proper record keeping of member giving and to ensure that the bills and salaries of staff are paid. The council shall be kept informed of the fiscal health of the congregation through monthly reports from the Treasurer/Financial Secretary. The Finance Committee shall ensure that an end of the year financial report is prepared for the annual meeting and a proposed budget is developed for the upcoming year. The committee will meet as necessary during the year to accomplish this work. Any congregational members who have gifts in financial accounting and feel called to serve on this committee are invited to notify the Council of their desire to serve on the Finance Committee. Appointments to the Finance Committee are made by the council.

Tellers (those who weekly count the offerings of the congregation) are appointed and monitored by the Financial Secretary. They are to ensure that the offering is counted and deposited after each service, or set of services. Tellers serve in two-person teams assigned on a rotating basis from a roster of trained teams. Responsibilities include counting, recording and depositing the offering. The time commitment is about 1 to 1.5 hours every couple of months.

Social Ministry: The Social Ministry Committee seeks to involve SOTH members and friends of all ages in helping to reduce world problems through education, personal involvement, and funding. Responsibilities are to determine actions that can be taken and to plan ways for involving SOTH in these actions. The Social Ministry Committee may meet as often as needed, but suggested meetings would be quarterly for 1.5 to 2 hours. Their activities include conducting fund raisers, as appropriate, for World Hunger Relief, Disaster Relief (LDR and ELCA World Hunger appeal) as well as local food pantry needs. They can also plan and implement Fair Trade expositions that help educate members and lift up Fair Trade opportunities. They can also conduct clothing drives for local and worldwide needs, i.e., hat/mitten collection prior to Christmas. Any congregational member or non-member who has a passion for the poor and needy is invited to join this committee and strategize new ways of reaching out.

Evangelism/Outreach Committee: The purpose of the Outreach Team is to help Shepherd of the Hills find new and better ways of creating a welcoming presence for those who are not currently a part of our faith family. The Outreach Team will also help people become easily incorporated into the life and ministry of the church. The purpose of the Outreach Team is evangelism, but door knocking is not required. The purpose of this committee is to put together some really creative and faithful people to shepherd all that we do that relates to reaching out. The Committee will assess SOTH current and potential outreach ministries; make recommendations on retaining, improving, or dropping current outreach efforts; oversee implementation of new and renewed outreach ministries; and work on making outreach part of the congregational ethos.

- C13.08. The pastor of this congregation shall be ex officio a member of all committees and boards of the congregation. The president of this congregation shall be ex officio a member of all committees and boards of the congregation, except the Nominating Committee.
